

HUNTER VALLEY

HERE'S TO THE GOOD LIFE

PLAY VIDEO

HOME / DESTINATIONS / HUNTER / HUNTER VALLEY / HERE'S TO THE GOOD LIFE

When was the last time you took off on a whim? Nestled in rich rolling vineyards and olive groves, The Hunter Valley is not only home to some of the world's best wines, but a place where innovative winemakers create vineyard doors are open and back cellars are open.

Today, with intimate and creativity are

HOME / DESTINATIONS / HUNTER / HUNTER VALLEY / HUNTER VALLEY FOOD AND WINE

HUNTER VALLEY FOOD AND WINE

When was the last time lunch rolled into dinner? The Hunter Valley's Semillon and Shiraz may be world-famous, but a short break in the rolling vineyards and olive groves, two hours north of Sydney, is where you connect with the passion that makes this area special.

Meet the innovative winemakers dedicated to the celebration of new varieties, and taste the distinctive flavours of Sangiovese and Vermentino. There are over 150 cellar doors and many wineries operate an open door policy, allowing visitors the freedom to turn up and taste wine.

HUNTER VALLEY

HERE'S TO THE GOOD LIFE

FIND OUT MORE

Passionate families also work to provide a rich variety of produce, in addition to growing the grapes that create some of the world's best wine. With fertile soils, the Hunter Valley is home to gourmet providores, festivals, fairs and markets where produce is sold.

Discover award-winning delights on a food and wine trail, or learn tasty local secrets at one of the Hunter Valley's many cooking schools. You can even explore cheese tasting rooms. Check out upcoming events, including special long lunches, fireside tastings and vineyard concerts.

MUST DO

- Cellar Doors
- Local Produce
- Handmade in the Hunter Markets
- Major Lanes cooking school
- Take a Brew Tour

HERE'S TO THE GOOD LIFE

- Food and Wine
- Wineries